

Helping Communities Help Their Children

Newark Public Library Presents:

NJPC Parents Empowerment Academy

Professional Parent Advocacy in the Special Education System

Navigating the Special Education System

Understanding the IEP Process

Through the support of the Newark Public Library, the New Jersey Parents Caucus is offering a FREE Training Workshop for Parents and Caregivers raising Children with Emotional and Behavioral challenges through its Parents Empowerment Academy. Parents and caregivers attending the training are given the opportunity to strengthen their knowledge of the systems that serve their families and their rights and responsibilities within those systems. The trainings will be provided in both English and Spanish. Refreshments will be served. Space is limited, so please register early.

Location: Newark Public Library
Auditorium
5 Washington Street
Newark, NJ 07101

Presenters: Karen Helmstetter, NJPC Board Member, Advocate & Parent
Kelly Grieco, NJPC Director of Special Education Advocacy & Parent
Kathy Wright, NJPC Executive Director & Parent

Dates: October 16 & 18, 6PM – 8PM (One Session)
October 24, 2007, 10AM – 2PM (One Session)

To register, contact Kelly Grieco at newjerseyparentscaucus@hotmail.com, 973-668-6917, fax to 973-742-5035, or register online at <http://www.newjerseyparentscaucus.org>.

Name _____
Address _____
City, State Zip _____
Phone _____ Email _____

Indicate which session you will be attending:

_____ October 16 & 18, 2007 _____ October 24, 2007