

Helping Parents Help Their Children

NJPC Parents Empowerment Academy & Paterson Public School District Presents:

Summer Training Workshops for Parents & Caregivers

Professional Parent Advocacy

Navigating the Special Education System

Understanding the IEP Process

The New Jersey Parents Caucus is offering a FREE Training Workshop for Parents and Caregivers raising Children with Emotional and Behavioral challenges through its Parents Empowerment Academy. Parents and caregivers attending the training are given the opportunity to strengthen their knowledge of the systems that serve their families and their rights and responsibilities within those systems. The training will be provided in both English and Spanish. Refreshments will be served. Space is limited, so please register by August 3, 2007.

Location: Paterson Public School #6
137 Carroll Street
Paterson, NJ 07501

Presenters: Karen Helmstetter, Public School Teacher, NJPC Board Member & Parent
Kelly Grieco, NJPC Board Member, Advocate & Parent
Kathy Wright, NJPC Executive Director & Parent

Dates: August 7, 2007, 10:00 AM – 1:00 PM
August 8, 2007, 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM

To register, please contact Regana Bracey, NJPC Chapter Director of Passaic County, at newjerseyparentscaucus@hotmail.com, call 973-668-6917 or 973-742-6114, or register online at <http://www.newjerseyparentscaucus.org/htmls/Empowerment.htm>.

Name _____
Address _____
City, State Zip _____
Phone _____ Email _____

Indicate which session you will be attending:

_____ August 7, 2007

_____ August 8, 2007

